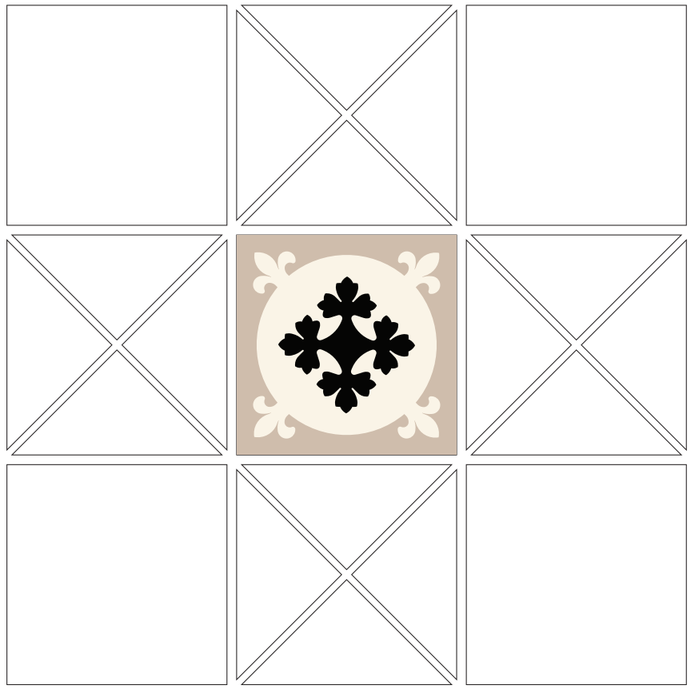
DECORATIVE DETAILS

INSETS

Insets add decorative detail within Victorian-inspired floor layouts. Used alongside plain tiles, borders and modular panels, they introduce colour, contrast and character without overwhelming the overall design. Available in a range of styles and colour combinations, each inset works as a considered finishing touch for hallways, entrances, bathrooms and statement floor areas.



Use insets to personalise your layout without changing the full pattern. Place them within plain tiles, repeat them through a border, or use them as small feature details to add colour and interest across the floor.

They are ideal for adding a subtle decorative touch or creating a more detailed Victorian-inspired design.

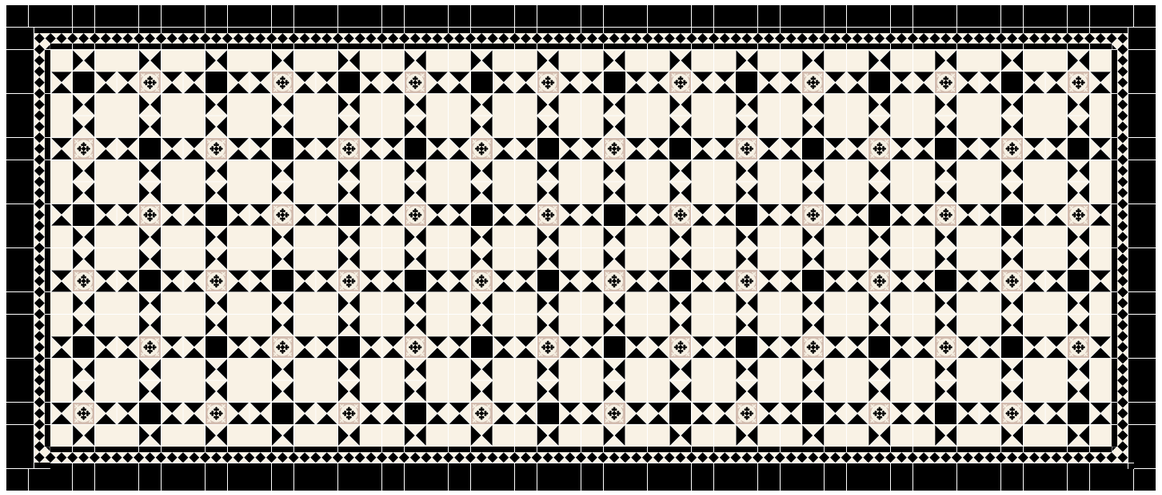
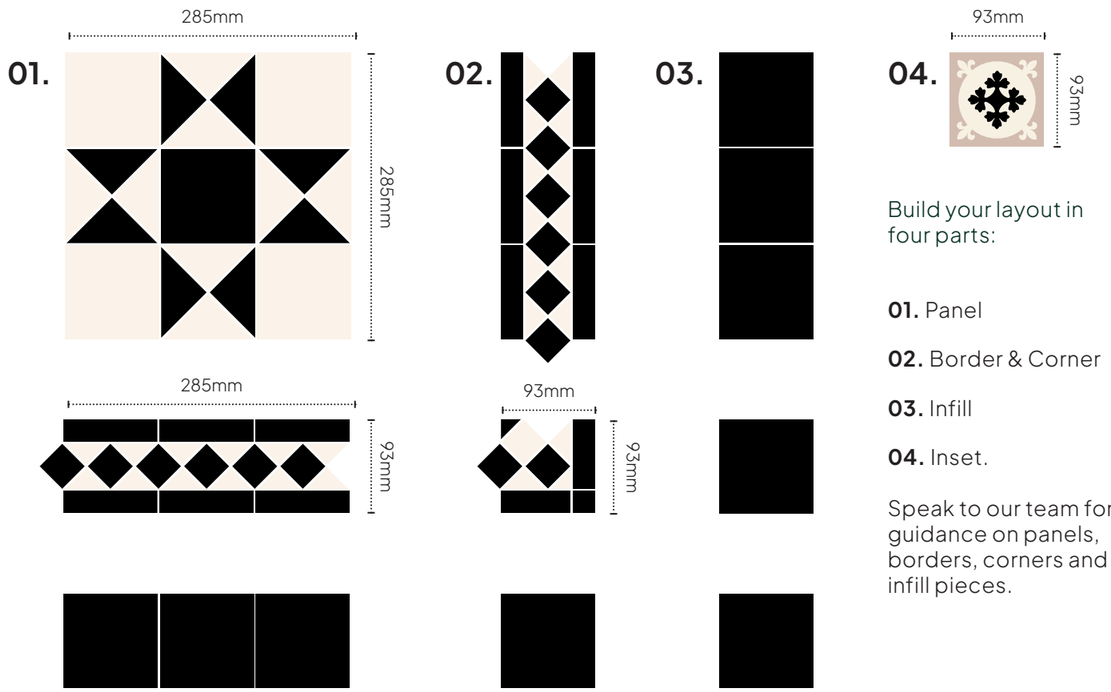
HOW IT WORKS

MODULAR SYSTEM

Our Victorian tile system is built from modular components that work together to create complete patterned floors. Panels, borders, corners and infill pieces can be combined to suit different room sizes, making it easier to plan traditional layouts with a clean, balanced finish.

Each element connects neatly with the next, helping create consistent grout lines across compact entrances, hallways and larger statement floors.





Build your layout in four parts:

01. Panel

02. Border & Corner

03. Infill

04. Inset.

Speak to our team for guidance on panels, borders, corners and infill pieces.
